Health and Wellness Services to Offer Mental Health First Aid Training

Suicide is the second leading cause of death among young adults and 39% of college students will experience a significant mental health issue. Furthermore, 1 in 5 adults have a diagnosable mental illness (Active Minds).

You can make a difference.

Mental Health First Aid teaches participants how to help adults experiencing a mental health or substance use challenge. Having more informed university students, staff and community members can dramatically help early intervention efforts and get others the help they need when they need it. The evidence behind the program demonstrates that it helps trainees identify, understand and respond to signs of mental illnesses and substance use disorders.

This training will be free for participants, but has a limited class capacity. The training will be held on the FHSU campus from 8am-5pm on Saturday, September 25th, 2021.

To sign up and please email sespurlock@fhsu.edu

“Together, We Heal; Together, We Rise”- Developing a path of healing and economic freedom for survivors of Domestic Violence by Thistle Farms

Sponsors: Department of Criminal Justice, Center for Empowering Victims of Gender-based Violence (CEVGV), Department of Sociology

Special Thanks to the Provost's Office, Office of Student Affairs, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, Entrepreneurship Faculty Fellowship

Date: September 29th.

Time: 10 am to 2 pm (Workshop)

Location: Black and Gold Room at Memorial Union

Please RSVP at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/together-we-heal-together-we-rise-tickets-168343793819>

The Department of Criminal Justice, the Center for Empowering Victims of Gender-based Violence, and the Department of Sociology will host an on-campus event in Fall 2021 with the founder and CEO of Thistle Farms-Becca Stevens. Ms. Stevens is a social entrepreneur, social activist, author, motivational speaker, and trauma-informed practitioner. Becca also helped establish ten justice initiatives that have raised more than $55M in funding revolving around trauma, trafficking, addiction, and extreme poverty. Becca was also recognized as a CNN Hero of 2016.

Thistle Farms provides on-site employment and a long-term residential program to women survivors who were justice-involved and victims of sexual violence and human trafficking. Five years after graduation, 75% of Thistle Farms' graduates are living healthy and financially independent lives. During her visit to FHSU, Becca will facilitate a workshop on social entrepreneurship, community collaboration, survivor empowerment, and techniques of boosting the local economy. While the workshop is open to all, it is designed for FHSU students who seek victim advocacy and social entrepreneurship certificates. A keynote event will also be open to the public that evening to engage this important conversation with our community.

The workshop aims to support economic independence, counseling, healthcare, and safe housing for the survivors of gender-based violence by sharing information, improving professional networking, assisting with program evaluation, and training that promotes a violence-free community.

The workshop will be open to FHSU students, faculty, and staff, as well as professionals who work with victims of gender-based violence. It is also designed for students who pursue a victim advocacy certificate or social entrepreneurship certificate. Live streaming and recording will also be available for online students.

Time: 7 to 8 pm (Keynote)

Location: Beach/Schmidt

The keynote event is open to the public. It aims to inspire and engage the community to learn about the power of healing, hope, and empowerment for survivors of gender-based violence.

You can also follow us via our social media site to watch live and review the recording

Call For Book Chapters: Implementing Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Management in Organizational Change Initiatives

Scholars and practitioners are invited to contribute to an edited book entitled, Implementing Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Management in Organizational Change Initiatives. Published by IGI Global. Researchers and practitioners are encouraged to submit on or before October 13, 2021, a chapter proposal of 1,000 to 2,000 words clearly explaining the mission of the proposed chapter. Questions can be directed to Dr. Abeni El-Amin, Assistant Professor, Robbins College of Business and Entrepreneurship, Fort Hays State University, aelamin@fhsu.edu.

<https://www.igi-global.com/publish/call-for-papers/call-details/5513>

The focus of Implementing Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Management in Organizational Change Initiatives is to analyze how leaders implement Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) organizational change initiatives. The social and political changes of this era have created a climate change and fundamental shift in how businesses view the impact of DEIB in the workplace. Additionally, determined is how leaders make significant, sustainable changes utilizing communication abilities, envisioning, conflict management skills, servant leadership, and innovative DEIB initiatives.

Monthly Mindfulness Minutes (MMM) Is Happening Once Again!

This year has been stressful. But stress doesn't have to take over our lives. Simple yet intentional steps can go a long way as we prioritize self-care.

Health and Wellness Services (formerly the Kelly Center) invites you to join us for a brief mindfulness meditation on the last Wednesday of every month, Monthly Mindfulness Minutes (MMM). Join us as an individual, an office, a class, or a department. All you'll need is a quiet space and a willingness to pause your busy schedule for a few moments a month.

MMM will be held on the last Wednesday of every month. We'll begin again this semester on September 29, 2021. The meditation will last around 10-15 minutes, but please stay as long or as little as you're able. You can access the live meditation via our recurring zoom link, or listen to the recorded sessions at a later time. The recordings will be posted the Health and Wellness Services website here:

<https://www.fhsu.edu/health-and-wellness/counseling/self-help>

Here is the recurring zoom link: <https://zoom.us/j/96561480413> We plan to start at 8:15! We hope to see you there!

We hope many departments and offices will chose to incorporate MMM as a tool for decreasing the impact of stress, depression, and anxiety on our campus. Mindfulness meditation is an excellent way to mitigate the risk of overstress, prevent burnout, and increase productivity. And the benefits aren't only momentary, research has shown meditation to "conclusively and positively change your brain structure." Still not convinced? Check out the following article on the specific benefits companies like Google, Nike, and Apple have seen after incorporating mindfulness meditation: <https://www.inc.com/marissa-levin/why-google-nike-and-apple-love-mindfulness-training-and-how-you-can-easily-love-.html>

Tigers, let's lead our students by example as we make our mental & emotional health, and our overall wellness, a priority. Please direct any questions to Amanda Brown (amanda.brown@fhsu.edu) or Jessica Albin (jkalbin@fhsu.edu). Finally, if you would like to receive a recurring Outlook invitation for MMM, please let Jessica know.

Gratitude Collage

Health and Wellness Services is planning an outreach event for the month of November that we are inviting your class or group to collaborate with us on. Our plan is to create a “Gratitude Collage” to be displayed in the Memorial Union during the entire month of November. Upon your request, we can provide your class or group with preprinted cards for each person to write what they are grateful for. You can keep these cards basic or get very creative with crafting materials! We would then ask you to return the cards to Health and Wellness Services (located on the 3rd floor of the Center for Student Success, or drop them in campus mail) by Thursday, October 28th so the cards can be used to create the collage.

Additionally, we will also provide you with some educational material about the mental health benefits of gratitude for you to share with your class or group as they complete the project. We are able to provide you with as many cards as needed and hope to have as many participants, classes, and groups involved as possible. If you would like to participate, please send me an email to Jess Albin (jkalbin@fhsu.edu) stating how many cards you need and where they can be delivered to. Thank you!

Critical Conversations

Wednesday, September 29th; 1:00pm – 4:00pm

Memorial Union, Pioneer Room

Price: $119 (Hays Chamber & FHSU Alumni discount available)

Critical Communication: A discussion between two or more people where (1) stakes are high, (2) opinions vary, and (3) emotions run strong. At the heart of many chronic problems within teams, between coworkers, or in organizations, lies critical communication – conversations that are either not happening well or not happening at all. In this 3-hour workshop, we will discuss the skills for creating alignment and agreement – both of which are tools needed to foster open dialogue around emotional or risky topics. Participants will learn how to speak persuasively, foster teamwork, build acceptance around ideas, and resolve disagreements in positive ways.
